26th - 30th October	Utamaduni Village Culture comes alive when we experience it, not just hear about it. At Utamaduni Village, step into the amazing cultural world of the Kenyan coast and discover the indigenous knowledge, creative practices, and traditions that have shaped what it means to be Pwani. Get your hands into clay and explore the art of pottery, a craft with a history spanning more than 500 years in the Jomvu Kuu community. Discover the beauty of henna art, try on exquisite Swahili attire, and celebrate the artistry and traditions of everyday coastal life. There will also be a gaming corner featuring a mix of physical and mobile games, bringing play, creativity, and friendly competition into the experience. The Old Town Creative Trail: Discover Mombasa through its makers

	This year, the cultural experience at Pwani Innovation Week extends beyond the Village into the historic streets of Old Town Mombasa, with an immersive Creative Trail curated by Imani Collective. Follow the trail into the heart of Swahili culture through its flavours, materials, skills and artistic expressions. From Swahili cuisine and the ritual of tea-making to natural botanicals, traditional weaving, Swahili wood carving and vibrant mural art, each stop offers a chance to encounter the people, stories and creative practices that make coastal culture distinctive. Come curious. Take part. Meet the makers. Experience Pwani through the hands, knowledge and imagination of its people. And in the evening, enjoy a Swahili food bazaar along Makadara Road.
26th - 30th October	Mosaic Painting
